APPEAL WAIVER INSTRUCTIONS FOR PROVIDING FINANCIAL INCOME DOCUMENTATION

Please include one or more of the following documents to assist in determination of eligibility for a waiver of the appeal fee. The combined household income and expenses, to include each person age 18 or older, will be taken into consideration.

(Employment Income) —  □ - Last two (2) years completed tax returns, signed (if filed) □ - Last two (2) months of pay stubs and last year's W-2's  (Unemployment Income) — Note that unemployment income is not allowed as the only income source for the family. □ - Last two (2) unemployment checks  (Federal Income) — If you receive federal financial assistance and/or income, please include a copy of the following: □ - Temporary Assistance for Needy Families □ - Poverty related Veteran's benefits □ - Food Stamp programs  (Recurring Basic Living Expenses) — If you have recurring basic living expenses, such	INCOME DOCUMENTATION:
please include a copy of the following:  - Any annual award letter(s) showing yearly or monthly income - Copies of checks received as other monthly benefit income (last 2 months)  (Employment Income) —  - Last two (2) years completed tax returns, signed (if filed) - Last two (2) months of pay stubs and last year's W-2's  (Unemployment Income) — Note that unemployment income is not allowed as the only income source for the family.  - Last two (2) unemployment checks  (Federal Income) — If you receive federal financial assistance and/or income, please include a copy of the following:  - Temporary Assistance for Needy Families - Poverty related Veteran's benefits - Food Stamp programs  (Recurring Basic Living Expenses) — If you have recurring basic living expenses, such as: shelter, food, utilities, health care, transportation, clothing, loan payments, support payments, and court-imposed obligations that affect you household income, please	Please provide the following, as it pertains to the household income.
□ - Copies of checks received as other monthly benefit income (last 2 months)  (Employment Income) — □ - Last two (2) years completed tax returns, signed (if filed) □ - Last two (2) months of pay stubs and last year's W-2's  (Unemployment Income) — Note that unemployment income is not allowed as the only income source for the family. □ - Last two (2) unemployment checks  (Federal Income) — If you receive federal financial assistance and/or income, please include a copy of the following: □ - Temporary Assistance for Needy Families □ - Poverty related Veteran's benefits □ - Food Stamp programs  (Recurring Basic Living Expenses) — If you have recurring basic living expenses, such as: shelter, food, utilities, health care, transportation, clothing, loan payments, support payments, and court-imposed obligations that affect you household income, please
<ul> <li>Last two (2) years completed tax returns, signed (if filed)</li> <li>Last two (2) months of pay stubs and last year's W-2's</li> <li>(Unemployment Income) – Note that unemployment income is not allowed as the only income source for the family.</li> <li>Last two (2) unemployment checks</li> <li>(Federal Income) – If you receive federal financial assistance and/or income, please include a copy of the following:         <ul> <li>Temporary Assistance for Needy Families</li> <li>Poverty related Veteran's benefits</li> <li>Food Stamp programs</li> </ul> </li> <li>(Recurring Basic Living Expenses) – If you have recurring basic living expenses, such as: shelter, food, utilities, health care, transportation, clothing, loan payments, support payments, and court-imposed obligations that affect you household income, please</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>□ - Last two (2) months of pay stubs and last year's W-2's</li> <li>(Unemployment Income) – Note that unemployment income is not allowed as the only income source for the family.</li> <li>□ - Last two (2) unemployment checks</li> <li>(Federal Income) – If you receive federal financial assistance and/or income, please include a copy of the following:</li> <li>□ - Temporary Assistance for Needy Families</li> <li>□ - Poverty related Veteran's benefits</li> <li>□ - Food Stamp programs</li> <li>(Recurring Basic Living Expenses) – If you have recurring basic living expenses, such as: shelter, food, utilities, health care, transportation, clothing, loan payments, support payments, and court-imposed obligations that affect you household income, please</li> </ul>	(Employment Income) –
income source for the family.  - Last two (2) unemployment checks  (Federal Income) – If you receive federal financial assistance and/or income, please include a copy of the following:  - Temporary Assistance for Needy Families - Poverty related Veteran's benefits - Food Stamp programs  (Recurring Basic Living Expenses) – If you have recurring basic living expenses, such as: shelter, food, utilities, health care, transportation, clothing, loan payments, support payments, and court-imposed obligations that affect you household income, please	• • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • •
<ul> <li>(Federal Income) – If you receive federal financial assistance and/or income, please include a copy of the following:         <ul> <li>Temporary Assistance for Needy Families</li> <li>Poverty related Veteran's benefits</li> <li>Food Stamp programs</li> </ul> </li> <li>(Recurring Basic Living Expenses) – If you have recurring basic living expenses, such as: shelter, food, utilities, health care, transportation, clothing, loan payments, support payments, and court-imposed obligations that affect you household income, please</li> </ul>	(Unemployment Income) – Note that unemployment income is not allowed as the only income source for the family.
include a copy of the following:  - Temporary Assistance for Needy Families - Poverty related Veteran's benefits - Food Stamp programs  (Recurring Basic Living Expenses) – If you have recurring basic living expenses, such as: shelter, food, utilities, health care, transportation, clothing, loan payments, support payments, and court-imposed obligations that affect you household income, please	□ - Last two (2) unemployment checks
<ul> <li>Poverty related Veteran's benefits</li> <li>Food Stamp programs</li> <li>(Recurring Basic Living Expenses) – If you have recurring basic living expenses, such as: shelter, food, utilities, health care, transportation, clothing, loan payments, support payments, and court-imposed obligations that affect you household income, please</li> </ul>	· · ·
as: shelter, food, utilities, health care, transportation, clothing, loan payments, support payments, and court-imposed obligations that affect you household income, please	□ - Poverty related Veteran's benefits

If you need assistance, call to make an appointment with Code Enforcement staff (425-257-8560)

Rev. 2/22